Angela Jackson-Brown Visit November 20

November’s Writers’ Group gathering will feature a visit by Dr. Angela Jackson-Brown. Angela is an award winning writer, poet and playwright who teaches Creative Writing and English at Ball State University in Muncie. She is a graduate of the low-residency MFA program in Creative Writing at Spalding University in Louisville, KY. She is the author of the novel, Drinking from a Bitter Cup, and a book of poems called House Repairs. She has published in numerous literary journals and has written and produced several plays including: Anna’s Wings, It Is Well, Black Lives Matter (Too) (co-written with Ashya Thomas) and Dear Bobby: A Musical (music by Peter Davis).

Currently, she is writing a novel set in 1934 called Shoot Across the Sky and a play about the School District 26 in Indianapolis called Voices from Yesteryear: A One Woman Showcase.

The Writers’ Group will meet in Room 116 at 6:30 on Tuesday, November 20; light refreshments will be available. All are welcome to attend and learn more about the writing craft and hear excerpts from the recently-published House Repairs.

Vote Here!

The library will be a vote center for the 2018 election. Registered voters may cast their ballots in library room 120 during the following dates and times: Thursday, November 1 from 1-8 p.m., Friday, November 2 from 1-8 p.m., Saturday, November 3 from 9-3 p.m., or Tuesday, November 6 from 6 a.m.-6 p.m.

Christmas is Coming:

Save These Dates!

The library’s annual family Christmas program will take place on Monday, December 3 from 6 - 8:30 p.m. We’ll have magic, snacks, a live animal show, and Santa Claus! The Thorntown Heritage Museum will host a tree-trimming party on Saturday, December 8 from 1:30-3:00 p.m. Join us for games and refreshments! Merry Grinchmas returns on Tuesday, December 11, 6 - 7 p.m. More details will be available in the December newsletter. Mark your calendars for these fun and family-friendly events!

---

The library will close at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, November 21 and will remain closed for Thanksgiving. We’ll reopen at 9 a.m. Friday. Have a wonderful holiday!
Friends Board Meeting

The Friends of Thorntown Public Library, Inc. board will meet on Tuesday, November 13 at 7:00 p.m. The board meets six times a year to hear program plans and reports, and make financial and administrative decisions on behalf of the membership. The board will be discussing their Christmas plans at this month’s meeting. Remember to renew your Friends membership for 2019! Thank you for your support.

Taste of Home

The Taste of Home Sampler will meet on Monday, November 5 at 6:00 p.m. in room 116. This is the perfect opportunity to take a new Thanksgiving recipe out for a spin! Cooks may choose a recipe from a book, magazine, or website, or share a family favorite with others. Call the library to sign up and submit your recipe, and bring the prepared dish and a place setting on Monday evening.

SOCKtober Success!

Thorntown American Legion Auxiliary’s SOCKtober collection has been a success. In the past month, over 70 pairs of underwear, over 90 undershirts, and over 220 pairs of socks have been collected at the library. Items will be donated to the Indiana Veteran's Home in Lafayette. THANK YOU to all who contributed to this worthy cause!

Christmas Ornament Make It-and-Take It

The Thorntown Heritage Museum doesn’t want the adult crafters to have ALL the fun! On Thursday, November 29 at 3:30, children (and their adults) are welcome to come make their own Christmas ornaments to help trim a tree. Each child will make two ornaments - one to keep and one to help decorate Thorntown Heritage Museum’s tree. Supplies and inspiration will be provided. The crafting session will take place in library meeting room 116. Then, plan to attend the museum’s Tree-Trimming Party on Saturday, December 8.

Looking for Inspiration?

. . . look no further. INSPIRE is a virtual library that gives access to dozens of academic and informational databases for free to Indiana residents. Offerings include Rosetta Stone (foreign language learning), Consumer Reports, and test (ACT, SAT, ASVAB) and resume preparation. Also included are Hoosier State Chronicles (Indiana’s Digital Historic Newspaper Program), Indiana Memory (digitized books, manuscripts, photos, and more), and Indiana Legacy (genealogy resources). Visit http://inspire.IN.gov to take a look at all that is available.
Christmas Ornament Swap

NEW this year - the Christmas tree in the youth department lobby will be the site of a Christmas ornament swap! All of the ornaments on the tree will be up for grabs. If you have one or two you’d like to trade, feel free to bring them in after Thanksgiving and contribute to the tree, and take any that might appeal to you. Swaps will occur on the honor system, and supplies will be available for anyone who’d like to make one to trade for an ornament on the tree. Someone’s old ornaments may become another’s “new” treasure! Look for the swap tree after Thanksgiving, and help deck the halls.

Bingo with The Waters

The activities coordinator from The Waters of Lebanon visits once a month to call Bingo for interested seniors. Join us Friday, November 9 at 12:30 to participate. There is no cost to play and new guests are always welcome. Call Diana at the library to reserve a CICOA lunch and make an afternoon of it.

Gourds in Thorntown

Readers who are interested in gourds may want to join gourd crafters at the library. Upcoming projects include: November 7 - start rain sticks and Christmas ornaments, 6-8:00 p.m.; November 21 - ornaments due rain sticks, 2-4:00 p.m.; December 5 - rain sticks and snowmen, 6-8:00 p.m.; January 2 - snowmen and snowflakes, 6-8:00 p.m.

Contact Karen at the library if you need gourds and supplies furnished.

Book Discussion

Join the Adult Book Discussion group as they discuss The Mountain Between Us by Charles Martin. On a stormy night, two strangers meet in an airport - one is an orthopedic surgeon on his way home; the other, a writer flying east for her wedding. A lucky break finds them sharing a charter flight to escape the storm, but the unthinkable happens, and they find themselves fighting for their lives in the High Unitas Wilderness.

Discussions usually last approximately one hour, and light refreshments are provided. Those who have not finished reading the book are welcome to join the group. The discussion will take place on Monday, November 12 at 1:30 p.m. in the Young Adult room. Copies of the book are still available at the adult circulation desk—please join us!

THORNTOWN HERITAGE MUSEUM

Adult Christmas Tree Ornament Contest

1. One entry per person.

2. No names may appear on the decoration.

3. All participants must be 18 years of age or older.

4. The decoration must be handcrafted or hand-painted.

5. All participants must submit a completed entry form and their finished decoration to the library’s main circulation desk by November 16, 2018. Attach the entry form to the decoration with a paper clip.

6. We will handle your decoration with care however; however, the Thorntown Library and the Heritage Museum are not responsible for any damages to the item.

7. Entries will be judged after November 16, 2018. There will be awards for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place.

8. Only ornaments made to hang on a Christmas tree will be eligible.

Entries will be kept on display at the library until judging is complete, after which they will be displayed on a Christmas Tree at the Museum. Ornaments may be picked up on or after Thursday, December 20, 2018.

I have read and understand the contest guidelines listed above. If I should win, I give Thorntown Public Library and The Thorntown Heritage Museum permission to use my name in publicity as the winner of the contest unless I request otherwise in writing.
