April Book Discussion: Anne of Green Gables

Anne of Green Gables by L.M. Montgomery has been selected for the April book discussion. First published in 1908 and followed by numerous sequels, the book introduces the reader to Anne Shirley, an 11-year-old with red hair and an overactive imagination who brightens the dim halls of her new home in Avonlea. Enjoyed by readers of all ages, the novel has been translated into 36 languages. Meet Anne for the first time - or make her acquaintance for the first time - and join our discussion group on Monday, April 8 at 1:30 in the Young Adult Room. All are welcome to join the group, even if they haven't finished reading the book. Light refreshments will be served, and discussions usually last an hour. Copies are available for checkout at the adult circulation desk.

Writers’ Group

Writers of all ages, interests, and abilities are welcome to join Thorntown Writers’ Group led by Laverna Truitt. The group will meet on Tuesday, April 16 at 6:30 p.m. in room 116 and light refreshments will be provided. New members are always welcome! We hope to see you there.

May 6 Blood Drive

Indiana Blood Center will be back on Monday, May 6 from 1-5 p.m. for a community blood drive. IBC visits Thorntown three times each year - thanks to all who roll up their sleeves to save lives! Interested in donating? Visit https://bit.ly/2UWIYoR to see answers to frequently-asked questions. Sign-up details will be published in the May newsletter.

Gourds in Black and White

The Sugar Creek Gourd Patch will meet at the library from 6-8:00 p.m. on Wed., April 3, and the Thorn Tree Gourd Patch will meet from 2-4:00 p.m. on Wed., April 17. Visitors are invited to participate. Some members will be completing projects while others will be experimenting with three displays that are being entered in the state competition. The Indiana Gourd Society annual show will be held on May 3-4 at the Fulton County Fairgrounds in Rochester, Indiana, with a show theme of “Gourds in Black and White.” Members assist with the show and provide 40-50 entries for the competition. There will be no May 1 meeting in Thorntown, but on May 15 from 2-4:00 there will be time to work on individual gourd crafts, review the state show, and plan crafts for June through August meetings. Please call Karen at the library with questions.

Karen will be talking about “Gourds Around the World” on April 4 at the 6:00 p.m. International Night hosted by the Extension Homemakers of Boone County. She will be assisted by patch members Ardie Bowles and Sandra Townsend; the session will be in the auditorium of the Boone County Fairgrounds in Lebanon.
