Gourd Winners!

The Thorntown gourd groups had 14 entries in the Indiana State Fair and won ribbons and prize money, including Best of Show for their gourd squares wall hanging. This piece will be hanging in the library meeting rooms and is made from 4” squares cut from gourds.

Crafters are invited to participate in the September 4 (6-8:00 p.m.) and September 18 (2-4:00 p.m.) Gourd Patch meetings to work on wood burning leaf patterns on gourds and adding color with paints, inks, and colored pencils. Participants may also work on their own projects.

Fall Book Sale September 26 - October 1

The Friends annual fall book sale is right around the corner. This year’s sale will start with set up on Thursday, September 26th at 3 p.m. in the library meeting rooms. Volunteers are needed to help set up, and watch the sale while it’s open. A “perk” of volunteering is the opportunity to shop while working! A sign-up sheet is available at the adult circulation desk for any who wish to help set up, take down, or work at the sale. The book sale be open to the public during library hours on Thursday and Friday. The library will be closed over the weekend for carpet cleaning, but the sale will be open from 10-6 Saturday, and 11-4 Sunday, and will resume being open during library hours Monday and Tuesday. There will be movies, audiobooks, books of all kind, and much more! All items are available for free will donation. The fall sale will include donated items and ex-library materials. All gently used or new donations are welcome. The book sale will be taken down on Wednesday, October 2nd at 3 p.m.

The Library will be closed on Monday, September 2 for Labor Day.
Family Festival Fun!

Thorntown’s Festival of the Turning Leaves is coming up fast! This year’s theme is “Country Roads!” Join our small town for lots of fun activities for the whole family! The festival kicks off at 6 p.m. on Friday, September 27 with the popular Bluegrass Jam at the Lions Shelter, and continues throughout the weekend. Families are invited to bring their own chair and watch a free movie at the park at 8, followed by a big fireworks show at 10!

Looking for a little friendly competition? You’ll have plenty of opportunity on Saturday! After a quick breakfast, run (or walk) in the Hope for His Children 5K or 10K at 9 a.m. If you run really fast, you might make it in time for the Arni’s pizza eating contest at 10:30 at the main stage. After your morning of exertion, reward yourself with treats from the many food and beverage vendors in the festival food court.

The library and Thorntown Heritage Museum will be participating in the festival Parade at 1 p.m. on Saturday, and the museum will be open 9-5 Saturday and 12-4 Sunday. The museum will have several vendors on the lawn and new displays will also be available, so be sure to stop by during the Festival! Back by popular demand: Dave’s Barrel Train will be on site at the museum from 2:30-4:30 on Saturday! The train will load and unload at the museum’s west parking area. There is no charge for rides. If you need a break from the hustle and bustle of main street, visit the Thorntown Heritage Museum or stop in the library meeting rooms to peruse our selection of gently-used books, magazines, and DVDs!

See you at the festival! Brochures about the Turning Leaves festivities and parade applications are available at the library. More information can be found at www.thorntownfestival.org.

Book Discussion

Hillbilly Elegy by J.D. Vance has been selected for this month’s book discussion. The book is “a passionate and personal analysis of the loss of the American Dream for a large segment of this country.” Pick up at copy at the adult circulation desk and plan to join in the discussion at 1:30 p.m. on Monday, September 16. Light refreshments will be provided.

Fish Fry

Everyone one is invited to New Beginnings Fellowship on September 7 at 5:00 p.m. for their big Fish Fry. The church is located at 120 South Powell Street, in Thorntown. There will be great food and great people so come on out!

The Never Game

If you have not read Jeffery Deaver's The Never Game, now is the time. This book is a fascinating mystery featuring tracker Colter Shaw as he digs into the cutthroat video gaming industry. Shaw also works through his father's list of rules that begin with “never.” People magazine called Deaver “the master of ticking-bomb suspense”. Karen Niemeyer found it hard to put the book down; look for it in MYS FIC DEA. It is the first book in the Colter Shaw series.

Ice Cream Social Success

The Thorntown Heritage Museum hosted its 11th annual ice cream social and 8th annual jam session on August 10. There were lots of goodies there to choose from! The museum collected $342.22 in donations that will help fund museum maintenance. Thank you to all who donated baked goods and to those came out to support the museum!

Healthy Aging Month

The World Health Organization defines Healthy Aging “as the process of developing and maintaining the Functional ability that enables well-being in older age”. Functional Ability is the capability of meeting basic needs, being mobile, building and maintaining relationships, learning, growing, making decisions, and contributing to society. Well-being is based on an individual’s feelings of contentment and happiness surrounding their physical health, economic situation, and social connection.

Ten Tips for Healthy Aging

1. Live an active life
2. Eat healthy foods
3. Maintain your brain
4. Get enough sleep
5. Cultivate your relationships
6. Complete Advance Directive
7. Practice Prevention
8. Take charge of your health
9. Make community connection
10. Reduce Stress

The Following Immunizations are recommended by the CDC, Check with your doctor to see what you require or if any additional vaccines are recommended.
