Fall Book Sale Sept. 21 - Sept. 28

Our annual Fall Book Sale is almost here! Volunteers are needed to help set up and watch the sale while it’s open. A “perk” of volunteering is the opportunity to shop while working! A sign-up sheet will be available at the adult circulation desk for any who wish to help set up, take down, or watch the sale.

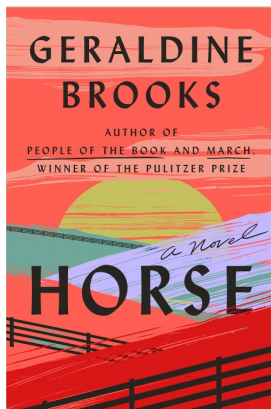

Set up begins at noon on Thursday, September 21st. The sale will be open to the public beginning at 2 p.m., and will run until 4 p.m. on Thursday, September 28th. The sale will be open during library business hours as well as 10 - 4 on Saturday the 23rd. There will be movies, audiobooks, books of all kind, and much more! All items are available for a free will donation. The fall sale will include donated items and ex-library materials. All gently used or new donations are welcome. Proceeds help fund special projects and programs for all ages.

The Library will be closed Saturday, September 23rd for carpet cleaning.

September Book Discussion

Book discussion meets on the second Monday of each month and is open to all adult readers, even those who haven't completed the reading. On September 11 at 1:30 the book club will meet in room 116 to discuss Horse by Geraldine Brooks.

Kentucky, 1850. An enslaved groom named Jarret and a bay foal forge a bond of understanding that will carry the horse to record-setting victories across the South. When the nation erupts in civil war, an itinerant young artist who has made his name on paintings of the racehorse takes up arms for the Union. On a perilous night, he reunites with the stallion and his groom, very far from the glamor of any racetrack.

New York City, 1954. Martha Jackson, a gallery owner celebrated for taking risks on edgy contemporary painters, becomes obsessed with a nineteenth-century equestrian oil painting of mysterious provenance.

Washington, DC, 2019. Jess, a Smithsonian scientist from Australia, and Theo, a Nigerian-American art historian, find themselves unexpectedly connected through their shared interest in the horse—one studying the stallion's bones for clues to his power and endurance, the other uncovering the lost history of the unsung Black horsemen who were critical to his racing success.

Based on the remarkable true story of the record-breaking thoroughbred Lexington, Horse is a novel of art and science, love and obsession, and our unfinished reckoning with racism.

CICOA Lunch & Free Produce

Senior citizens who want to enjoy socializing and a healthy meal may sign up for the CICOA lunch program that is held in the library meeting room at 11:30 a.m. Monday-Friday. Participants may also complete applications to receive twenty pounds of fresh produce twice a month. Feel free to call the library for information and to make reservations.

Chess, Anyone?

We're still on the lookout for those who are interested in having a chess club. If you are interested in learning to play, or looking for people to play with, please let us know! If there's enough interest we will begin offering Chess Club sessions in the fall. Contact the library if interested in participating.

Community Bingo!

BINGO will resume on Sept. 8 from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m. in the meeting rooms! It's free to play and open to all ages. There will be fun prizes & light snacks. No registration necessary.

Go for the Gourd

The Sugar Creek Gourd Patch meets on the first and third Wednesdays, from 2-4:00, in the Thorntown Public Library meeting room. Visitors are welcome. Call Karen at the library in advance to assure that supplies will be on hand. On September 6 the seventeen State Fair entries will be returned with their ribbons, although prize money will not arrive until October.

Future sessions will be Sept. 20, Oct. 4, and Oct. 18. As always, participants may work on their own projects. We shall also continue having gourds and supplies available for decoupage projects as well as 4" gourd squares for painting fall leaves and snow flakes to be added to the library's gourd quilt. Job's Tears and needles will be on hand to allow participants to begin working on necklaces.

September Euchre Night

Thank you to everyone who came to August's Euchre Night. $275 was raised for SOAR. The next Euchre Night will be Saturday, September 30th in the meeting rooms. Sign-in begins at 5:30, and play starts at 6:00 p.m. Please register by visiting or calling the library. You can also register online through the library calendar. Registration is open through September 29. There is a $10 buy-in fee to be collected when you arrive. Please brush up on your euchre skills if it has been a while since you have played, and plan to stay to the end. We will play 7 to 8 games, which will take around three hours. Singles are welcome. Please bring a food or snack to share and dollar bills for the "Kitty".

Taste of Home Sampler: Sept 4

The Sampler will be held from 6-7 p.m., Monday, Sept. 4, even though it is a holiday evening. To date the recipes selected are Zucchini Pineapple Bread, Country Chili, Cheddar Ham Soup, and Quick Cornbread. Bring to Karen at the library a copy of any recipe you will bring so that copies may be printed for everyone. Ice water will be served as the beverage, and in addition to the reported dish, participants should bring their own table service. After the Sep. 4 session, the next Sampler will be on November 6. A decision on whether or not to meet on Jan 1, 2024, will be made at the September session.

Writers' Group

On the fourth Monday evening of each month Writers' Group meets at the library. Every person who comes has a story to tell. The stories we share with one another reveal just a little bit about who we are, where we grew up, who our grandparents were and the struggles they faced. Are we any different than our ancestors? Our goal is to leave a legacy that will impact future generations. Join us on September 25 at 6:30 p.m. in library meeting rooms. Come in ready to share your story and ready to learn from one another.

Teen Stuff

Roll 'em! In August, teens were invited to the library for a TEEN TENZI TOURNAMENT. Tenzi is a fast-paced dice game played with 10 dice per player. We had 40 rounds of play! As a prize, the library gave away a $25 gift certificate to Danny J's and Lily Robinson was the big winner! Our next TAG meeting will be Sept. 5th at 4:00. Anyone 12 years of age or older is invited to attend.
